F&B Uniform is the ultimate online portal offering a wide assortment of stylish yet comfortable ready-to-wear uniforms designed by established garment brand, CheckedOut. Made of unique flame-resistant fabrics, our selection of high-grade chef outfits are an essential component for ensuring staff safety while meeting the growing needs of South East Asia's hospitality industry. In addition to that, CheckedOut's innovative uniforms are also quick-drying and don't crumple easily - making cleaning and maintaining them a breeze. By incorporating high class material into our chef coats, the end result is a garment that is silky smooth to the touch, lustrous to the eye, and appealing to the most discriminating in stylistic tastes.

We purchase our material directly from suppliers of raw materials, which in turn greatly reduce the cost to our customers.

Our chef uniform fabric is of the highest quality and it makes every chef feel comfortable in their working environment.

As we use a high thread count, our end products are of superior quality which makes washing a breeze.

We pride ourselves on bespoke designs that our expert team of designers put together for the modern chef who is looking to be a step above the rest.

We produce only the best designs that will provide you with a look and feel that will make you stand out comfortably and stylishly without the hefty price tag.
